GCSE results and acceptance of placement

There are a range of choices for you once you leave Cambourne;

Do you want to study:

- A levels or A/AS levels?
- The International Baccalaureate? Diplomas?
- Vocational courses?
- Apprenticeships?

Where do you want to study?

What subjects do you want to do?

Think carefully about your decision:

- Read the prospectuses carefully
- Use the My Choice@16 website to research the different courses on offer.
- Talk to your tutor about your future plans
- Work out some questions to ask at the Open Evenings.
- Use information from the National Careers Service.
(<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>)
- Visit the post 16 institutions to find out which one will meet your needs the best.
- Fill in the relevant sections in the online application
- Take your time making your final decision - it is one that will have a long-lasting effect so it needs to be well thought out.

Remember that the decision of where to go and what to do is only one part of the process. You still need to get the best possible grades to ensure a successful future.

“Doing the best at this moment puts you in the best place for the next moment.” Oprah Winfrey

What happens after Cambourne?

The Government requires young people to continue in education or training until at least their 18th birthday.

This does not mean you must stay in school; you can choose one of the following options:

- full-time education, such as school, college or home education ;
- an Apprenticeship, or other work based learning;
- part-time education or training if you are employed, self-employed or volunteering for more than 20 hours a week.

Participating in education or training brings benefits for young people, and also for the economy and wider society. Young people who continue in learning post-16 are more likely to attain higher levels of qualifications and have increased earnings over their lifetime. They are also able to gain the skills that employers want, which will lead to a more internationally competitive workforce.

You can find out more about the raising of the participation age (RPA) here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/raising-the-participation-age>

The vast majority of Cambourne students will go on to study at one of the colleges within the Cambridge Area Partnership. Each of these colleges have their own entry criteria and certain courses will require you to have completed specific GCSEs.

Looking further ahead, you may wish to go on to university. To help you have the best opportunities, the Russell Group of 24 leading UK universities has published a guide to post-16 subject choices.

Informed Choices, produced with the Institute of Career Guidance, is aimed at all students considering A-level and equivalent options. It includes advice on the best subject combinations for a wide range of university courses as well as advice on the best choices if you don't know what you want to study after school and need to keep your options open.

We would recommend that you read the advice being given by this group of universities before choosing your courses as it may affect what you choose to do.

Information can be found at the following website:

<https://www.informedchoices.ac.uk/>

What you can do next depends on making the right choices and achieving your best in your Key Stage 4 courses. By making the right decisions and doing well now, you can give yourself the best opportunity to succeed in the future.

"Sometimes it's the smallest decisions that can change your life forever." -

Keri Russell

Apprenticeships

Who are they for?

- For people who want to work and train at the same time.
- They are open to all age groups above 16 years old whether you are just leaving school, have been working for years or are looking to start a new career.

Key features:

- You are an employee so you will earn a wage
- You will work alongside experienced staff to gain job-specific skills.
- Apprentices receive training to work towards related nationally recognised qualifications usually on a day-release basis.
- Can take between one and four years to complete depending on the level of Apprenticeship, the apprentices' ability and the type of job.
- All apprentices should work for at least 30 hours a week

How do I get an apprenticeship?

There are three ways of applying for Apprenticeships.

1. Applying through the National Apprenticeship Service

All apprenticeship vacancies are advertised with the National Apprenticeship Service <https://www.findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk> and locally for instance through College websites

<https://www.camre.ac.uk/apprenticeships/apprenticeship-job-vacancies/>

<https://cwa.ac.uk/apprenticeships-vacancies>

or the Form the Future organisation:

<https://formthefuture.org.uk/apprenticeship-search/>

Search for vacancies by keyword, job or occupation. You can narrow your search by postcode or location.

You will need to register and create your own account before you can make any applications.

2. Applying through a training provider/further education college

Training providers are companies that work with employers to make sure their apprentices receive the right training. Use MyChoice@16.co.uk to find the training providers, e.g. CRC.

Type in your postcode, filter by the distance you are prepared to travel, Yr 11 and type of course - apprenticeship.

Use the extra filter to refine your search by levels and provider type.

Training providers may be able to help you find an apprenticeship by suggesting local employers to contact. You will need to find an employer to take you on as an apprentice.

3. Applying for vacancies with local companies

Some local companies will advertise job through local papers, in schools and colleges as well as on the apprenticeships website.

Make sure you apply for any vacancies that interest you.

If you find a job, your employer may be prepared to offer you training through an apprenticeship.

Important!

Don't just apply for one vacancy - apprenticeships are very popular and you may not be successful straightaway.

Make sure you have the right entry qualifications. Some opportunities will ask for particular grades in English, maths and/or science.

Apprenticeship vacancies are advertised throughout the year. Apply to those that interest you as soon as possible. As some vacancies are advertised for several months, you may not hear whether you've been successful for a while.

Anyone interested in applying for an apprenticeship must speak to Mrs McCormack before doing so.

Students are able to apply to any college that they are qualified for. We recommend that you apply for more than one College/Sixth Form.

If the college you wish to apply to is not on the list, see Mrs McCormack for assistance.

Applying to Post 16 Institutions

Your application contains several sections that need to be completed alongside you choosing courses/ institutions and applying to them.

You should create an application on Mychoice16 for each college/sixth form that you are interested in.

When creating your applications to institutions; you should include all your chosen subjects in one application. We recommend including a 'back up' course/subject option on your application where your projected grades are not quite meeting or are only just meeting entry requirements. Please speak to Mrs McCormack or Mr Thomas if you need guidance around this.

All sections of your application need to be completed by Friday 18th November.

Section 1. Profile Template

Personal Statement

This is a very important section - make yourself stand out from others

Remember that there will be lots of students applying with the same grades as you and the personal statement is the way that you will stand out from the crowd. Certain institutions have many more applicants than places and they are looking for students who can offer their institutions something. You need to sell yourself and show that you are a well-rounded person with a variety of interests so make sure you include everything that you want the institutions to know.

- Write your personal statement in Word and copy and paste it into your Mychoice16 profile when completed and checked
- Write in detail
- You can repeat some of the information already on the form, for example interests and work experience.
- Don't write about one institution - the same personal statement will get sent to every institution so don't make comments like "I want to come to Comberton because you have wonderful sports facilities."

Personal Statement student guidance - ideas to get you started.

1. Why would you like to continue in education?

What subjects have you enjoyed at school and might like to continue?

2. Character

What subjects do you like and why?

What are your main interests: sports teams, keep fit, hobbies, socialising - how have/do these help you

What extra-curricular activities do you do? They could involve some of the following: Sports team, extra classes like dance/art class, interests and clubs like stamp collecting!, part-time work or jobs that you have.

5. Responsibilities - in school and outside

Other responsibilities could include Prefect duties, drama/musical productions, charity work, Peer Mentor etc.

6. Work Experience

Frequently asked questions

Q. Will students always be invited to an interview at all post-16 centres they apply to?

A. This will depend on the centre. Centres may not interview students whose estimated grades do not meet the entry requirements. In addition, some centres may decide not to interview all applicants in the light of the numbers who apply to them. See pages 9 to 14 for the interview policy for each college.

Q. When will students receive offers and how should they respond to these offers?

A. As indicated, post-16 centres will make offers at different times, with some sending out offers shortly after each batch of interviews, while others will wait until all interviews have been completed. Each post-16 centre will send guidelines about how students should make an initial response to offers. In-area students will receive their offers by Easter.

Q. How long can students hold the offers they have received?

A. As indicated, students may hold all their offers until GCSE results are published in August and are advised to do so.

Q. Can students choose to decline an offer before August after they have received offers from all centres applied for?

A. Students may choose to write to post-16 centres and decline offers in the May-July period before the August publication of GCSE results if they have definitely decided that they no longer wish to hold a particular offer. However, it will be important for school guidance staff to ensure, where possible, that students continue to hold offers that will cover all likely outcomes on publication of GCSE results.

Q. What should students do on receiving their GCSE results 24th August 2023?

A. Students should follow the guidelines which will be provided by the post-16 centres who have made offers to them. Post-16 centres will indicate the dates on which they would like students to contact them or attend enrolment sessions. It is advised that students are available on Results Day so that they can respond to the colleges in the appropriate way. Students will also be expected to attend enrolment days at the end of August so should make sure they are not on holiday during this key time.
