

COMBERTON ACADEMY TRUST COURSE INFORMATION

Course Title	GCSE English
Course Description	This course aims to develop learners' skills and fluency in the inter-related disciplines of reading, writing and speaking and listening. Over the duration of the course, we will study a range of modern non-fiction texts and nineteenth century fiction text extracts. In studying these texts, learners will learn to identify the techniques used by a variety of writers to achieve a range of purposes including- to inform, explain, argue; persuade and advise as well as to imagine, explore, entertain and describe. Learner will go on to use this knowledge to develop their own writing skills so that they can consciously craft written texts, both non-fiction texts and imaginative, creative pieces. In addition to the two written exam papers, learners will also undertake a spoken endorsement element which involves one spoken presentation to the group. The spoken endorsement element is a compulsory requirement of the course of study. It will appear on all candidates' certificates as a separately reported grade, alongside the overall grade issued. The proposed specification is the Edexcel 9 - 1 English Language GCSE (1EN0). PLEASE NOTE: As with all new-style GCSEs, grades A* - U have been replaced with levels 9 – 1. To be considered to have gained a "good pass" you will need to achieve a level 5. The assessment structure for this course is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paper 1 (Fiction and Imaginative Writing- 40% of total mark). • 1 hour 45 minute written exam Candidates will answer four questions on one nineteenth century fiction passage. Candidates will then choose one of two imaginative writing tasks to complete which will be linked by theme to the nineteenth century fiction extract. and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paper 2 (Non-Fiction and Transactional Writing- 60% of total mark). • 2 hour written exam Candidates will answer a series of questions on two 20th/21st century non-fiction texts, including two questions requiring comparison and contrast. Candidates will then choose one of two transactional writing task to complete which will be linked by theme to the non-fiction texts on the paper. and

	Spoken endorsement. (Does not count towards the GCSE but is a compulsory requirement of the course of study). Candidates will give a formal spoken presentation for a maximum of 10 minutes including a discussion, answering questions arising from their presentation. N.B. There is only one level of entry for this qualification and it is possible for candidates to achieve a level 9 (equivalent to an old A* grade) in the exams they will be sitting.
