

Get an extra dose of HISTORY!

Listen!

Mystery has surrounded Tomb 55 in the Valley of the Kings (KV55), Egypt, ever since it was discovered in 1907.

Play!

Explore a Norman Motte and Bailey Castle in 3D!

Read!

Fact or Fiction? 8 things you need to know about the legendary King Arthur

Learn!

Historical Association Virtual Branch
Check out these free virtual lectures

Podcast!

Everything you ever wanted to know about the Normans, but were afraid to ask
With Dr Marc Morris

Explore!

Explore the British Museum's amazing online exhibition!

Watch!

The Spanish Armada: 12 Days to Save England

Write!

Schools History Project Essay Competition

"If 1066 is said to be the most important date in English history, what is the equivalent in another country?"

Simple? Yes. And no. The countries that students can write about cannot include European or North American countries.

Also, extra credit will be given for geographical and chronological ambition.

800 WORDS MAX

Email us your entries! Open to all year groups.

More information coming soon!

This week I have read 'The Children of Jocasta' by Natalie Haynes and now really want to learn more about Greek myths! I have also taken part in two virtual quizzes with friends.

Miss Angell

This week I've been reading an amazing murder mystery set in Medieval London, The Clerkenwell Tales. I've also been trying to teach my cat bring me a cup of tea, with little success.

Mr Green